THURSDAY, NOV. 9, 1905.

OLD PIONEERS.—On something of other, Chief Treasurer of the Holy Synod of Russia, the signed. Things are bad indeed, for afternoon when that old back was ready to give up. He lay on his back, and the whole Russian people concentrated in one so that he could not move in his bed. His religion and complete government.

It looks like Joe Blackburn's political campaign has not, never to rise again. The Louisville Post shows that of the hold-over in the presidential campaign, he has been nominated for U. S. Senator by sixty-six votes, while Blackburn has only thirty-two; two for Ollie James and thirteen non-committal. Joe has been the day, that was a "hog," but he held on a little too long.
